DEPARTMENT OF MARATHI (FACULTY OF HUMANITIES)

The Department receives Feedback on Curriculum from its stakeholders at the end of the academic year and discuss the inputs with its faculty members.

The affiliating university introduced the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) for its UG programmes from the AY 2018-19 and this year it effected the final year of graduation. The feedback, especially student feedback after the introduction of revised syllabus, demanded the need of additional class engagement (in the form of offline and online lectures). It also demanded the experimental learning experience and field visits especially to the Media Centre, Libraries and the institutes like Marathi Vishwakosh (the Encyclopedia of Marathi Language).

The received feedback was placed in the meeting of the Board of Heads presided by the Principal who suggested that the demands received through feedback be communicated to the Board of Studies for further action.

The department communicated the same to the concerned Board and also discussed the feedback / suggestions in the subject specific workshop/s organized by the university.
